CHECK US OUT...

BEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEE, Crash!!! Morning! Open eyes, CHECK body . . . still there. Wobble to the bathroom, take care of business, turn on the shower. CHECK to see if the water is hot. CHECK the pearly whites, between the toes, and end of nose.

Find drawers, socks, shirt, sweater. Missing Levis'... CHECK closet, under bed, dryer, not there. Give up! Wear Guess Jeans. Eat breakfast, Wheat CHECK, Snickers, Cola. CHECK time. Way behind! Miss the bus, start stepping, arrive late to homeroom. "Your hat young man?" CHECK for call slips and start the day.

Bell rings, class begins, return homework, CHECK plus; tests back, CHECK minus. Time's going slow, CHECK swatch 3 minutes to go! Late for class, where's your pass. CHECK out the girls, gimme a break Time for art class, can't be late.

It's lunch time! Do you have a Dime? Chocolate cake, That one's mine! CHECK the board, see whats there. CHECK the angle of your hair. Bell rings, CHECK your things. End of day. Go home now to work or play.

End of school ... CHECK OUT! Visit the truck, rush for the bus. Walking home, all alone ... Thoughts of the day, dreamed away

Homecoming Dance of 1987, A night to remember. The couples danced the night away as the excitement grew on the dance floor. The battle for the best dance couple ended in a tie, and the well-decorated room complemented the guests. It was a sensational evening as the sparks filled the air. The fire was lit, generating much heat which counteracted the nippy weather outside.

The night could have gone on forever, but the time came for the last dance. Everyone left into the winter night with a warm glow.

"As long as there is poverty in the world, I can never be rich, even if I have a billion dollars. As long as diseases are rampant and millions of people in this world cannot expect to live more than 28 or 30 years, I can never be totally healthy I can never be what I ought to be until you are what you ought to be. This is the way our world is made. No individual or nation can stand out boasting of being independent. We are interdependent."
